Good Enough to Take.

The finest quality of loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to that of maple syrup, making it very pleasant to take. As a medicine for the cure of coughs, colds, la grippe, croop and whooping cough it is unequalted by any other. It always cures and cures quickly. For sale by J. L. Schultz.

Jasper, Tenn., Sept. 13, 1899. Editors News:

I notice in the last issue of the so-culled Statesman Democrat an editorial on the late land sale for taxes in which Havron states that the sale was an unusually large one. Havron certainly drew largely from his imagination and political prejudice in order to make such a statement. The truth is the sale was not more than one-balf of what it has been in the Stewart & Alley are doing the biggest cash business of any concern in Whitwell. We save money for our friends by running a strictly cash business, so they say.

People always expect more goods and better quality when they pay cash than when they get credit. Stewart & Alley run their stere on this principle. They guarantee to deliver more goods for cash than any other concern in town.

Another school house is badly needed. There are about 230 pu pils enrolled at the Cheek school house and the house is not large enough for more than 150 or 175 students. About 40 per cent. of our school population is not in school. The public welfare des mands that something should be done.

"To trust is bust, No trust, no bust," is the somewhat senseless jingle that appeared in the comic papers some time ago, yet there is a world of truth in it. Stewart & Alley believe that it strikes both waysthat if you pay cash you are liable to get a great deal more for your money than if you ran an account with a credit concern.
